

1 you, I say to you very sincerely if we put this type of 2 thing into the Constitution we will have done nothing for 3 the public but have given them a terrific headache as to 4 what on earth this could possibly mean in terms of any 5 kind of protection that the legislature or anyone else could 6 provide for.

7 I ask you very sincerely to vote for 8 reconsideration.

9 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sickles.

10 DELEGATE SICKLES: Mr. President and fellow
11 delegates: I strongly urge that you vote against reconsidering
12 this matter that we have twice passed in this Convention.
13 I think that there is no question but that there is no
14 mischief that results from this particular provision.

15 There is no question but that it does not have any 16 impact or effect until the legislature does pass appropriate 17 legislation, but I think we ought to understand that 18 this has been one area where there has been much discussion
19 but not much action on the national or in many of the state
20 levels, and there is a reason for it: because there is a 21 basic thrust that we are concerned with.
